Para 13

Resolution regarding Election Committee

The company shall have an Election Committee consisting of one representative of each of the three largest shareholders together with the Chairman of the Board of Directors. When the composition of the Election Committee is decided, the conditions on the last banking date in August 2010 shall determine who are the largest owners according to number of votes. If any of the three largest shareholders refrains from appointing a Member, the right shall be passed on to the owner who is next in size. The names of the Members, including the Chairman and the shareholders who have appointed them, shall be announced as soon as possible and not later than six months prior to the 2011 Annual Meeting of shareholders when the following shall then apply:

- The Members of the Election Committee shall appoint the Chairman of the Election Committee who must not be a Board Member.
- No special remuneration shall be paid for the work on the Election Committee.
- A shareholder who has appointed a Member of the Election Committee may remove the Member and appoint a new Member and, when required, replace a Member who has left the Election Committee before the work has been completed. If a Member no longer represents one of the three largest owners, such a Member can resign, if the Election Committee finds it appropriate, and a replacement be appointed by the owner who has then become the third largest owner.
- Changes in the composition of the Election Committee, if any, shall be announced as soon as they have been made.
- The Election Committee shall work out proposals to be placed before the 2011 Annual Meeting of shareholders for resolutions on the following matters: (a) Chairman of the Annual Meeting of shareholders, (b) Board of Directors, (c) Chairman of the Board, (d) Directors' fees, (e) remuneration of the company's Auditors and (f) rules for the appointment of the Election Committee ahead of the 2012 Annual Meeting of shareholders.
